True North Calling – Short Episodic Synopses
Produced by Proper Television for CBC

1. TAKING RISKS
In Iqaluit, we meet Franco Buscemi days before he oversees a high stress oil transfer for the community; Franco shares his political ambitions. In Inuvik, tour operator Kylik Kisoun Taylor is set to launch a bold new attraction for tourists.

2. LIVING OFF THE LAND
A third-generation fisherman on Great Slave Lake, Shawn Buckley, passes on traditions to his young son, while in Whitehorse, a pair of organic farmers live entirely off the grid in a yurt with their two small children.

3. NEXT STEPS
An Inuvik-based tour operator, Kylik Kisoun Taylor, attempts to launch a bold new business venture, while in Iqaluit, community leader Franco Buscemi takes a brave step toward his political career.

4. GROWING PAINS
In Yellowknife, fisherman Shawn Buckley tries his hand at a new business venture, while farmers Kate and Bart welcome their second child, and struggle to make the most of the summer season.

5. NEW BEGINNINGS
A local TV producer in Iqaluit, Stacey Aglok Macdonald, struggles to make a show entirely in Inuktitut, while fisherman Shawn Buckley struggles to store his boat for the winter. The farmers plan for a long awaited addition to their farm.

6. THE FUTURE
A young producer, Stacey Aglok Macdonald, scrambles to finish a TV show while dealing with tough logistical challenges, while the other Northerners plan and prepare for the future.
